

FOUNDATION for EXCELLENCE

Jenny Penney Oliver Chair for Counselors and Support Personnel Nomination Eligibility Information & Sample Award Application

PLEASE NOTE: All nominations must be submitted via the online process: <http://athensffe.org/awards/>;
Nominees should refer to their nomination email for the direct link to their award application.

The Jenny Penney Oliver Chair for Counselors and Support Personnel is awarded biennially (even-numbered years only) to recognize and honor those (including school counselors, psychologists, social workers, nurses, behavioral specialists, and graduation coaches) who nurture and care for students in the Clarke County School District in a holistic way, both inside and outside of the classroom. Read more about Dr. Oliver and past awardees on the Foundation for Excellence website.

Nominations: Nominations may be made by principals/supervisors, colleagues, students, parents, or community members. Nominators should work with the nominee to solicit letters of support and prepare and submit the packet by the deadline. There is no limit to the number of nominations made by any one school.

Qualifications: Eligible educators are those who:

- Prior to the year in which nomination takes place, have at least five years of experience in roles supporting students (including school counselors, psychologists, social workers, nurses, behavioral specialists, and graduation coaches), with at least three years in the Clarke County School District
- Hold current Georgia teaching certification and/or licensing
- Are employed by a Clarke County school as a full-time or part-time position on the first day of pre-planning of the academic year of the nomination
- Do not currently hold any other Foundation award; and
- Have never previously received the Jenny Penney Oliver Chair for Counselors and Support Personnel

Term: This chaired award is presented for two years at a level of $1200 per year. Nominations for this Chair are accepted only in years ending in an even number.

NOMINATION PROCESS:

The nomination process has changed. Please see below for the how the process differs from previous years.

Primary Changes:

- The awards process will consist of 3 separate time frames: Nomination, Application, & Supporting Documentation
 - Nomination (February 15-March 9): Nominations may be made by principals/supervisors, colleagues, students, parents, or community members. Nominators should work with the nominee to solicit letters of support and prepare and submit the packet by the deadline. There is no limit to the number of nominations made by any one school
 - Application (February 18-March 25): Once a CCSD employee is nominated for an award, he or she will be contacted by the FFE awards committee to begin the application process (the later a nomination comes in, the less time an applicant will have to complete the process).
 - Primary information necessary to complete the application includes: education credentials, contact information for letters of support, and any essays associated with the award (please note that the Stroud, Downs, and Horvat award require no essay).
 - Supporting Documentation (March 19-April 9): During the application phase, the CCSD employee who has been nominated will be asked to provide the names and email addresses for the individuals the Foundation should approach for the following:
 - One (1) evaluation form from a current administrator/supervisor (new this year instead of a letter of support) AND
