Arthur Moog Middleton Writing Grant for High School Teachers

Arthur Moog Middleton (1983-2000), a lifelong resident of Athens, was a 16 year old 11th grade student at Cedar Shoals HS when he died in January of 2000. At the time of his death he was an editor of the Cedar Shoals HS yearbook, Mirari, and loved books and reading. His parents, Kent Middleton and Melissa Moog, established the grant in Arthur's memory.

Originally begun in 2003 as the Arthur Moog Middleton Media Center Grant to purchase challenging literature at both high schools, the Arthur Moog Middleton Writing Grant for High School Teachers was established in 2019 to support projects that produce excellent student fiction and/or nonfiction. Each year a teacher or teachers at Cedar Shoals HS or Clarke Central HS receives a $500 grant to underwrite a broad range of projects.
